CATTINI UPGRADES ITS NEW CORPORATE WEBSITE

CATTINI E FIGLIO is pleased to announce today the launch of its new corporate website. For a long time, our previous website has served Cattini well, providing the required information to the marketplace about our Company's advanced products and services; today, the new website raises the bar further and enhances the website experience to new levels, providing a new benchmark to the industry, states Lorenzo Cattini – Company's Chairman and C.e.o. -.

We deeply thank all of our Associates that contributed to our new website with their ideas and our Partner – Key Technologies – for their valuable co-operation in this project.
